Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 17 and 18, drawn to a sandwich immunoassay, classified in class 435, subclass 7.94, for example.
 - II. Claims 19 and 20, drawn to a method, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1, for example.
 - III. Claims 21-25, drawn to a lateral flow assay device having magnetic particles, classified in class 436, subclass 174, for example.
 - IV. Claims 26-30, drawn to lateral flow assay device, classified in class 436, subclass 518, for example.
 - V. Claims 31-35, drawn to a lateral flow assay device, classified in class 422, subclass 58, for example.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II-V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together; they have different modes of operation due to their different components. The method of Groups I and II are not disclosed as usable together and they have different assay steps which results in different modes of operation. Furthermore, the method of Group I is not recited as being usable together with any of the device of Groups III-V.

Inventions II and III-V are unrelated. In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together; they have different modes of operation due to their different components.

Inventions III and V are unrelated. In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together; they have different modes of operation due to their different components.

Inventions IV and V are unrelated. These devices have different components and different modes of operation.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, and because the search required for Group I is not required for Group II-IV restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
